🎵 "Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head" 🎵

Even Though The Skies were very dreary,
The 27 CVID'ers were very cheery,
At the March 9th Meeting in Williamsburg.

CVIDS Member Sue Kramer spoke of her love and passion of spring flowers which create a sea of blues, yellows, and many patterns throughout the spring season.

2020 IS HERE REGIONAL PLANNING

2020 Regional Meeting Co-Chair Keith Riewerts once again met with a small group of the planning committee to forge ahead on the details involved in hosting the Regional Daylily Conference. Progress is being made in several areas of planning, and it was announced that Paul Owen will be the Auctioneer for the Live Auction.

Committees will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 13th for the Regional Planning.

*"Apparently it's good to talk to your plants.
I tried to teach my flowers mathematics,
but they ended up with square roots."*

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello and welcome to Spring. Lyle and I are looking forward to seeing you in Washington on April 13. We will be at the Public Library on the south side of the square with a fabulous view of Central Park.

The speaker for the 2019 CVIDS Fall Banquet will be Phil Korth of Pinewood Gardens.

Pinewood Heart's Desire was one of Lyle's club plants and it was beautiful. Take the time to look up some of Phil's introductions.

I have previewed the Iris presentation prepared by Diann Pavelka and LeAnn Pisarik. You won't want to miss the show. See you in Washington.

LOOKING FOR A NEW WEBMASTER !

As Webmaster Jonathan Poulton, Esquire, has announced his resignation effective June 30, 2019, the CVIDS Club is in dire need of a well-qualified individual with a technical skill set to fill the Position, (training is available). Professor Poulton has done a remarkable job of creating and maintaining the CVIDS website since its inception by going above and beyond in time and talent. The website is a treasure of information of current and archived data. Please contact Jonathan directly, or Nancy Rash, indirectly !
